Dear Ms. Marousis:

It's time for a progress report on Paul AHEPA. He's growing by leaps and bounds! He's almost his full adult height, although he'll be filling out until at least the age of 2.

Now that public excursions are allowed, Paul AHEPA is learning about The Big World beyond the front door. Wearing the bright puppy coat that identifies him as a future assistance dog, he and his puppy raiser, Anrae, visit various public places to gain exposure to different sights and sounds.

Although a six month old puppy is still very much an adolescent, Anrae is working hard to teach Paul AHEPA good manners, both in public and at home.

The last four months have been a period of great growth and change for him. We hope that he'll continue to mature into a good candidate for formal assistance dog training.

I'll write again when he is ten months old. Until then, best regards from everyone here!

Sincerely,

Jennifer Gisler
Chief Growth Officer
